

Chatsworth House Dressed for Christmas

Sunday 20th - Monday 21st November 2011

Sunday Departing from Bradford at 9.00am, our first visit (after a comfort stop en route), will be to developing Trentham Shopping Village & Gardens, with its cafe's, garden centre, restored Italian Gardens, and Monkey Forest (admission to Italian garden, and monkey forest not included). For the shopper, the Village offers fine furniture to contemporary art, accessories to ice cream, clothing to cookware. You'll find some familiar names, like The Edinburgh Woollen Mill, Antler and Thorntons, as well as some of the most popular brands in the pottery industry in Royal Worcester and Portmeirion. You'll also discover an eclectic mix of smaller independent retailers. From here we enjoy a run through scenic Derbyshire to have some time for a look around Derby with its cathedral and older shopping quarter of boutiques and coffee shops, as well as new shopping centres scenic Derbyshire to have some time for a look around Derby with its cathedral and older shopping quarter of boutiques and coffee shops, as well as new shopping centres

Monday The chance on a quieter day to enjoy Chatsworth House dressed for Christmas. Its Christmas decorations offer a unique experience, with beautiful traditional decorations in the grand rooms on the two lower floors of the house. There are craft activities in the farmyard, beautiful gifts in the shops, seasonal treats in the cafe and restaurant and on many days there are musicians or other entertainers on hand to enhance your visit. We return for early evening.
