

Worcester Christmas Fayre, Birmingham German Xmas Market, & the Cotswolds

Friday 2nd - Sunday 4th December 2011

Friday Departing Bradford at 09.00 with a stop en route to Birmingham. Here you will be able to enjoy the superb Bullring shopping centre and the Victorian arcades. There is, also, the famous German Christmas Market which with nearly 200 stalls is the largest authentic German market outside Germany and Austria. We then travel to the Fownes hotel in Worcester, a former Victorian glove factory, situated 2 minutes walk from Worcester city centre, which received extremely favourable reviews on previous visits.

Saturday Today you are free to explore Worcester, where the Christmas Fayre will be in full swing. There is, of course the magnificent Cathedral, standing on the banks of the Severn. The Cathedral contains the tombs of King John and Prince Arthur, elder brother of Henry VIII, as well as the memorial to Sir Edward Elgar. Other attractions include the Porcelain museum, and the Greyfriars a superb timber framed merchants house saved from demolition by an eccentric brother and sister. (admissions not included)

Sunday We travel to the Evesham Garden Centre, which also contains a courtyard of shops, including an excellent farm shop, as well as a superb restaurant. From here we journey to Bourton on the Water, on the banks of the River Windrush, with its range of individual shops. From here we travel, with a stop en route to home arriving in Bradford mid evening.
