

Friday Departing Bradford at 9.00 we travel, with a stop en route, to Oxford arriving lunchtime to allow time to explore the city with its colleges, museums, riverside walks and shops.

Saturday Today we visit the Cotswold Wildlife Park & Gardens which is home to a fascinating and varied collection of mammals, birds, reptiles and invertebrates. We then visit Burford, a attractive town by the River Windrush.

Sunday After a leisurely start to the day in Oxford, we take a scenic cruise along the Thames to enjoy a relaxing glimpse of river life. We then visit Hellfire Caves. These ancient caves origin were extended by Sir Francis Dashwood founder of the notorious 18th century Hellfire Club who used to meet in them.

Monday Today we visit Blenheim Palace, built for the first Duke of Marlborough to celebrate his victories over the French, it is equally famous as the birthplace of Sir Winston Churchill. As well as the stunning Staterooms and exhibitions celebrating both Marlborough and Churchill there are beautiful formal gardens and landscaped grounds. We then journey home arriving in Bradford mid evening.
