

In the Footsteps of Harry Potter

Friday 31st August - Sunday 2nd September 2012

Friday Departing Bradford at 8.00 we travel, with a stop en route, to Warwick Castle, rightly regarded as one of the finest in the country, and home of Richard Neville known as the "Kingmaker". Also included is the Merlin - the Dragon Tower, an exhibition based on the popular BBC television series, where you will be transported to Camelot. Discover the secrets and scandals of the 1898 Royal Weekend House Party with Daisy, Countess of Warwick, and the Prince of Wales, later King Edward VII. There are also 60 acres of landscaped gardens to explore. From here we travel to our hotel.

Saturday Today we visit Warner Brothers Studio for the highlight of our tour, a behind the scenes walking tour which immerses you in the world of film making, featuring authentic sets, costumes and props from the Harry Potter film series.

Sunday We travel into the centre of London where you have free time to explore as you wish, or to take a self guided tour of the Harry Potter sights - Gringotts Bank, Digon Alley, Platform 9 ¾ to name but a few, (information to do this will be supplied and involves use of public transport), or just go shopping, visit historical sites and museums or relax in the many parks. Depart mid afternoon we travel home, with stops en route, arriving in Bradford mid evening.
